“BE CURIOUS, SEEK CHANGE.” Kaitlyn Steinhiser

... HONOR STUDENT ... CLASS PRESIDENT
... FUTURE LAWYER & POLITICIAN
... MICHIGAN CITY SUCCESS STORY

Anyone who knows Kaitlyn Steinhiser wouldn't be surprised if she were elected President of the United States one day. She's certainly spent a lot of time at Michigan City High School preparing for a leadership role!

TAKING CHARGE: Although she's a few years away from running for a public office, Kaitlyn already is a president: She's president of the Senior Class, the Steering Committee, and the Thespian Society. She's also captain of the Quiz and Spell Bowl teams, editor of the student newspaper, producer of the morning announcements, secretary of the Student Council, and has had leading roles (on stage and back-stage) in Drama Club. “My fellow students have inspired me to become a leader, and my teachers have encouraged me to make progressive changes that are beneficial to all.”

PROUD OF CITY: Kaitlyn has taken 14 AP and dual-credit courses at MCHS, and she was a Lilly scholarship finalist. She also enjoys writing a column for La Porte County Life. “I have a unique opportunity to showcase the great things happening at our high school, things not everyone is able to witness firsthand.”

CITY PRIDE: Kaitlyn will major in political science and journalism in college, then attend law school. “I'd like to be a political consultant or a staff attorney for the Indiana House of Representatives — and one day run for public office.” She's passionate about local politics, so watch for her name on a ballot near you. “I plan on staying in Michigan City, to be a voice for the people. Everyone should have a say in matters that affect their lives.”

SECRET TO SUCCESS: “Be curious about society and the world, become knowledgeable, and seek change where it's needed.”
