Josefina and her dad sat in the car. It would not move. Its tires were deep in snow. A man came by. He said, “I will push the back of the car.” He pushed hard. No good. Another man said, “I will help too.” They pushed hard. No good. Then a big tow truck came. The driver hooked it to the front of the car. Vroom! The truck gave one really big pull. The car was out!

5. A) Note to Teacher: See note at the top of the first page.

What was strong enough to pull Josefina’s car out of the snow?

Suggested answer: Answers may vary but should include: truck (preferably tow truck)

B) Draw a picture that shows Josefina’s car at the end of the passage.

Suggested answer: Drawings may vary but should depict a car with a girl and her father attached to a tow truck but no longer stuck in the snow.

Note to Teacher: It is unlikely that your students will include all of these details independently, however, the level of detail in their picture is a good indicator of how well they are visualizing the passage, and their ability to visualize is directly linked to their ability to comprehend. If students finish early, encourage them to think about additional details that would help them draw a picture as detailed as the description above.

6. Note to Teacher: See note at the top of the first page.

What did you learn from “Stuck in the Snow”?

Suggested answer: Answers may vary and should be supported by the passage.
